Don’t Forget Your Flu Shot!
UC employees should use the following link to find a schedule of flu shot and mammogram screening services: https://www.uc.edu/hr/bewelluc/events.html . Flu shots are provided by HealthWorks. The flu shot is free for those who are covered under the UC Anthem medical plan. To sign up for an appointment visit: bit.ly/flu-shot-clinics.

UC/UCH employees who plan to get their flu shot through UC Health Associate Health and Wellness, should complete an ONLINE FLU SURVEY using their UC Health username/user ID and password. If you do not know your sign-in information, please call the UC Health help desk at 585-MYPC.

KL2 Research Scholars Program: LOI due October 30, 2019 by 5:00 pm.
Funded by a National Institutes of Health Clinical and Translational Science Award, the CCTST offers the KL2 Research Scholars mentored career development award to eligible faculty. The KL2 program generally provides 75% salary support (up to $100,000/year) plus $25,000 in research-related expenses for up to 2 consecutive years to highly qualified junior faculty pursuing careers in clinical and translational research. During the award period, scholars are expected to pursue their own K23 or similar individual career development awards, or R01 grants. For more information: https://cctst.uc.edu/funding/kl2rs/. For questions contact Krista Newland (KL2 Program Manager) by phone at (513) 803-5593 or by email at krista.newland@uc.edu.

Acute Care Research Symposium 2019.
CCTST’s Acute Care Research Council is hosting the Acute Care Research Symposium 2019 on Monday, November 25 from 8am-Noon, at Cincinnati Children’s Sabin Auditorium. The goal of this year’s symposium, entitled “Cutting Edge Research in Acute Care Sepsis, ARDS, and other Life Threatening Conditions”, is to highlight leadership and innovation in the challenging acute care research setting. Featured Keynote Speakers include UC’s R. Duncan Hite, MD, Professor, Department of Internal Medicine and CCHMC’s Hector Wong, MD, Professor, Department of Pediatrics. The Symposium will also feature a poster session, platform presentations, panel discussion and leadership & innovation awards. Approved CME’s include: AMA PRA Category 1 Credit, CNE, and ABP MOC Part 2. For free conference registration and other details visit: https://cctst.uc.edu/acrc.
