UC Health Office of Clinical Research.
The OCR is seeking candidates for a participant panel to discuss their research experiences for an upcoming Lunch & Learn. During the session, a moderator will ask the panel participants some predefined questions. Participants should be willing to share their research experiences as well as be comfortable speaking in front of a group of researchers. If you have a participant who you believe would be a great candidate for this type of opportunity, please contact Emily Werff for more information.

Spotlight on Mary C. Mahoney, MD, FACR, Radiology’s Most Influential Triple Threat.
In an article by Axis Imaging published on May 31, 2019 Mary C. Mahoney, MD, FACR, Department of Radiology, is recognized as the only individual to serve a simultaneous leadership position for all three of the major radiological societies in the United States. Dr. Mahoney’s extensive and impressive credentials have included serving as the chair of the board of directors for the Radiological Society of North America (RSNA); on the executive committee, Board of Chancellors, for the American College of Radiology (ACR); immediate past member, Board of Governors, American Board of Radiology (ABR); and as a member of the Society of Chairs of Academic Radiology Departments (SCARD) and Executive Leadership in Academic Medicine (ELAM).

James Herman, PhD, serves as chairperson of the NIH Neuroendocrinology, Neuroimmunology, Rhythms and Sleep Study Section, Center for Scientific Review.
Members are selected on the basis of their demonstrated competence and achievement in their scientific discipline as evidenced by the quality of research accomplishments, publications in scientific journals, and other significant scientific activities, achievements and honors. We would like to recognize Dr. Herman for this impressive accomplishment and thank him for his service to the NIH and to the UC College of Medicine.

Content to submit? Click here: https://redcap.research.cchmc.org/surveys/?s=3CX994Y34W